BLUE ORDER NUMBERS

Products designated by the order number printed in blue are dimensionally oversized, overweight or hazardous goods that require special shipping. For these items, we will ship by the most economical means available at the customer's expense, in addition to Cabela's Canada's basic shipping/handling charge. These charges will be added to your total invoice cost. Products designated by the order number printed in blue followed by an asterisk (*) will incur an additional $7.50 oversize fee.

FIREARMS ACQUISITION

Customers must provide their full name as shown on their licence, a valid Possession Acquisition Licence # (PAL), date of birth, place of birth (city/town and province/territory), mailing address, physical residence address (house number and land location) plus day and evening telephone numbers at time of order. Non-restricted firearms will be shipped once PAL is verified.

Purchasers of handguns must have a firearms licence that includes "restricted" status. Due to federal regulations only allowing Canada Post to transport handguns, all orders (including basic and additional shipping charges where applicable) must be paid in full before shipment. Firearm(s) will be shipped once transfer process is complete.

AMMUNITION, POWDERS, PERCUSSION CAPS & PRIMERS

Ammunition purchases only: Customers must provide a valid Firearms Licence (PAL/POL) number at time of order. Customers must provide day and evening telephone numbers. Powders and primers cannot be shipped by air. Ammunition, powders, percussion caps and primers are considered hazardous materials and only certain carriers will transport them. If you are ordering any of these items, we will ship them to you, at a cost to be incurred by you, by the most economical carrier, since Canada Post will not accept hazardous materials for shipment. Some shipping restrictions may apply. Due to courier restrictions, dangerous goods orders must be paid in full prior to shipment. Please make sure, when ordering any of these items, that you provide us with a street or drop-off address as well as daytime and evening phone numbers.
